

I am on the do not call list in NJ I have not received to many calls from telemarketers. The calls that I have received are few, and that is the way I like it. If I didn't receive any of those calls it would be much better. When I receive a call, it is usually in the early morning or late at night.